

Qualifications for endorsement for scheduled medicines – programs of study in podiatric therapeutics that are substantially equivalent to approved programs of study

The following list provides details of programs of study in podiatric therapeutics that the Podiatry Board of Australia considers to be substantially equivalent to, or based on similar competencies to, an approved program of study in podiatric therapeutics for the purpose of an endorsement for scheduled medicines.

Education provider	Qualification
Queensland University of Technology	Bachelor of Health Science (Podiatry) completed in 2011 and 2012 and which includes the following three elective subjects: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• LSB384 Pharmacology for Health Professionals</li><li>• LSB 584 Pharmacotherapeutics for Podiatrists</li><li>• PUB662 Clinical Therapeutics for Podiatrists</li></ul> *Graduates will be required to provide with their application for endorsement for scheduled medicines evidence in the form of academic transcripts to show they have successfully completed the three specified elective subjects.