Privacy statement

The Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) and the relevant National Health Practitioner Board(s) are collecting your personal information to assess your suitability for appointment. Your information will be stored in a secured database (the AHPRA database) and will only be accessed by authorised officers of AHPRA or the National Boards.

AHPRA and the National Boards treat all personal information provided by an individual in relation to an application for, or existing, appointment in accordance with the laws that apply to AHPRA, including the applicable provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

The personal information you provide in this form and any accompanying document is required for the purposes of processing and assessing your application. It may be shared with other persons or organisations, such as organisations that issued your qualifications, in order to establish its accuracy and/or to assess your application and suitability for appointment. This may involve disclosing your personal information to overseas entities if, for example, your qualifications were obtained through overseas institutions.

If you do not provide the required information it may not be possible to proceed with your application.

Should you wish to gain access to your personal information held by AHPRA please contact our Privacy Officer by writing to the Privacy Officer at the AHPRA office in your state or territory. AHPRA's Privacy Policy sets out how you may access your information, seek correction of it, how you may complain if your privacy is breached and how that complaint will be dealt with. AHPRA's Privacy Policy is available at www.ahpra.gov.au.

When you provide us with information about other individuals, we rely on you to make them aware that such information will or may be provided to us as part of the application process.

Consent and declaration

I consent to the use of personal information in this form (including any sensitive information such as gender or ethnic origin) by AHPRA and the relevant National Board(s) as part of administering appointments.

I declare that:

- I have never been, nor am I currently insolvent; and
- I have not been disqualified from acting as a director or acting in the management of a company.

I grant permission for inquiries to be made to establish the accuracy of any of the information provided by me in this form and accompanying attachments and to determine my suitability for appointment. I understand that these inquiries will involve the disclosure of my information for these limited purposes. I understand that AHPRA and selection panels may make these inquiries of any persons or organisations they consider appropriate.

By signing this declaration, I acknowledge that if shortlisted for selection, I grant permission for the conduct of probity checks, which will consist of:

- an Australia-wide criminal record check by CrimTrac
- a check of the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC) register of persons prohibited/disqualified by ASIC under the provisions of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), and
- a check of the Australian Financial Security Authority (AFSA) National Personal Insolvency Index which contains information about proceedings and administrations under the Bankruptcy Act 1966 (Cth).
